

Brecksville-Broadview Heights City School District

Thanks for a Great First Week of School Congratulations National Merit Semi-Finalists

September 11th, 2020

Dear Brecksville-Broadview Heights City Schools Community,

The 2020-2021 School Year officially began this week, and to large extent, our first few days of school during a new normal period of unprecedented protocols, procedures and education, was a success. Students showed their excitement for being reunited with their friends and teachers. Appropriately masked, and other requirements followed, our BBHCSD family safely came back together this week. How wonderful!

Per Governor Mike DeWine's directive from last week, and as communicated in previous correspondence, the BBHCSD will join all school districts in reporting data related to COVID-19 occurrences, if any, on a daily basis. The District has placed an easy-to-understand table under Resources, on our website. Check back regularly to see the latest information and updates relative to specific COVID-19 cases in our District. As always, these resources are provided to maintain compliance, and also to remain open, transparent and accessible to our families. Please take advantage of this information!

The Brecksville-Broadview Heights City Schools would like to extend its sincerest congratulations to this year's National Merit Semi-Finalists: Michael Corbo, Max Hartland, Anthony Minatel, Stephanie Mossop and Madeline Shaheen. These individuals have demonstrated the highest academic standards in earning such National Merit status, and places them among the top 16,000 finishers in the entire nation. They will also have the opportunity to compete for National Merit Scholarships. Congratulations once again to Michael, Max, Anthony, Stephanie and Madeline for pursuing academic excellence. Way to go Bees!

Finally, today is the 19th anniversary of the tragic events of 9/11, and on behalf of the BBHCSD, we ask that you take a moment of remembrance to honor those who perished or whose families were forever impacted. You will never be forgotten.

Thank you and have a safe and enjoyable weekend!

GO BEES!

Joelle Magyar
Superintendent of Schools
