

Brecksville-Broadview Heights City School District

Take Back Togetherness Night on Wednesday, November 2nd School Sponsored Activities will be Paused

November 1st, 2022

Dear Brecksville-Broadview Heights City Schools Community,

Happy November!

Tomorrow evening, Wednesday, November 2nd, everyone in the BBHCSD school family will be encouraged to recognize our Take Back Togetherness night as an evening to unplug and spend time with family. School-sponsored practices, events, and activities will be paused tomorrow evening, so families can simply spend some time together with one another.

The Take Back Togetherness initiative has long been celebrated in the Brecksville-Broadview Heights City Schools and has been purposefully designed for families to enjoy an evening free from homework, school activities, practices, and events. The district simply encourages families to leave technology on their counters, and have a conversation, enjoy a meal, inquire about school progress, or other activities amongst yourselves. Re-connect, and enjoy, one another.

Thank you for considering the positive impact our time is with family, and for observing this evening as a moment for sharing quality time with each other.

Sincerely,

Joelle M. Magyar
Superintendent of Schools
