

Brecksville-Broadview Heights City School District

Happy Thanksgiving!

November 22nd, 2022

Dear Brecksville-Broadview Heights City Schools Community,

Thanksgiving Break is upon the district, and on behalf of everyone in our devoted Bees school family, I wish you all a joyous and restful break with family and loved ones. The BBHCS D will recognize the Thanksgiving holiday this week on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday with days away from school. Thank you to our dedicated staff members who recognize the importance of a sound education on a daily basis...our parents for their flexibility and optimism in educating our children in this post-pandemic environment...our community leaders for their assistance and guidance when needed...and our students, for demonstrating each and every day a pursuit for excellence. Combined, we comprise our extended school family, and I thank you all, for working collaboratively to Bee One Community.

Once again, on behalf of everyone, please enjoy your Thanksgiving Break and enjoy some special time with loved ones in a safe and responsible manner.

Thank you for your continued support of the Brecksville-Broadview Heights City Schools.

Sincerely,

Joelle M. Magyar
Superintendent of Schools
