

Trailblazers Group Activities Sheet 2024

Trailblazers (Must have completed 4th- 8th Grades)

Camp Activities Are From 10:00 am – 3:00 am

Week 1: Collaborate Week;

This week we'll be catching up with returning Trailblazers and meeting our new friends. We'll be going over ground rules and expectations for this summer and doing fun group activities.

Week 2: Collaborate Week Cont.;

We'll split up into our teams and host our own Trailblazer Olympics, and go for gold in other team activities. We'll be taking a field trip to Tinker's creek so bring your mud clothes.

Week 3: Collaborate Week Cont.;

Teamwork! We'll drafting ideas to pitch in our very own version of Shark Tank, and collaborating on the creation of some new games. We'll be taking a trip to Canal Fulton for a canoe trip this week.

Week 4: Investigate Week;

We'll be introducing investigative methods and solving some puzzles this week. We'll be going to the Metro Parks for a fourth of July cookout and practicing our chef-skills, too!

Week 5: Investigate Week Cont.;

Elementary, dear Trailblazers! We'll be using our investigative skills to solve some capers in camp. We'll also be doing some scientific observation and experiments. This week we'll be going to Whirlyball.

Week 6: Investigate Week Cont.;

Campout week, bring your tents and gear! We'll be setting up camp at BBHES, learning camp safety and skills, and putting on camp safety skits for the Juniors. This week we'll be ice skating.

Week 7: Create Week;

Let's get crafty! This week we're going to model small business plans and start making creations for the Trailblazer craft fair. DIY projects abound, we'll also be attending a Rubber Ducks game this week.

Week 8: Create Week Cont.;

We're continuing on with our DIY projects and beginning to plan and build our own carnival games for next week's Parent's Day. This week we'll be hiking, creeking and cooking out at Squaw Rock in the Chagrin River Reservation.

Week 9: Create Week Cont.;

Trailblazers will be completing and sorting out our Parent's Day carnival games this week as well as finishing up all of our summer projects. We'll be going to the West Side Market this week.
